PROF. IRELAND ON STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Local Educator To Be Appointed To High Place By New State Superintendent of Schools.

Only a few of his friends have known that since the election of Hon. Barksdale Hamlett as Superintendent of Public Instruction on the Democratic ticket, it is assured that Prof. J. W. Ireland, of this city, will be named as a member of the new State Board of Examiners, to be appointed by the new State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The State Board of Examiners is composed of two members, who, with the State Superintendent, form the body which has charge of the examinations for teachers of all the state. It is a very high position in the educational work in the state, and the friends of Prof. Ireland will congratulate him upon the appointment, which will be made by Supt. Hamlett as soon as he takes his office the first of the year.

Those who know Prof. Ireland well and are cognizant of the great work he has done with the Stanford Graded and High school, will also congratulate the new State Superintendent upon his splendid selection. Prof. Ireland has made the local school the best known in the state for a graded and high school in a small city, and has made it about the best school in the state, for a town anywhere near the size of this one.

His local friends will be glad to know that Prof. Ireland, as a member of the State Board of Examiners will in no wise interfere with his duties as Superintendent here.

OUR PARTIAL FRIENDS

(Argus in Louisville Herald.)

Any number of Kentucky newspapers are boosting Shelton M. Saufley of the Stanford Interior Journal, for appointment as a member of the State Board of Control or some other good office under Governor-elect McCreary.

"BOGE" BROWN

Appointed Master Commissioner in Garrard By Judge Hardin

As predicted by the Interior Journal last week, Judge Charles A. Hardin announced the appointment of W. H. Brown as Master Commissioner of the Garrard circuit court, at Lancaster this week. Mr. Brown will take charge of the office at once.

Everyone concedes that the selection of Mr. Brown was an admirable one on the part of Judge Hardin. He has an unimpaired record as a democrat, and recently piloted the party to a splendid victory in Garrard in the recent campaign, a feat which has hitherto been very rare of accomplishment in a year when there was a state election. In addition to that, Mr. Brown has not been identified with any of the factional fights in Garrard, and has the friendship of the leaders of both sides. He will undoubtedly make a splendid Commissioner.

MARKSBURY.

Lee Perkins bought 15 head of 700 pound cattle at $4.25.

Job Marsee sold a bunch of sheep at $3.75 per head.

W. T. Dooin sold a pair of weanling mules for $3.50.

Miss Kay Jenkins and Mr. Willie Jenkins have returned from a visit to relatives at Georgetown.

A reception was given at Pleasant Grove church in honor of their new pastor Rev. C. E. Powell, of Danville, one afternoon last week.

Mr. James Byers, of Detroit is making an extended visit to Mr. Jno. Royston and family.

Mrs. J. B. Kemper and Jonah Marse who have been sick are much improved at this writing.

Miss Mary Chestnut has returned from a delightful visit to her sister, Mrs. Chas. Burdette, of Broken Arrow, Okla.

Mrs. Belle Perkins and Ed. Perkins were in Lexington recently and made a short stay with Mrs. Woods of that place.

The candidates, numbering 11, went fearlessly down into the water in obedience to the command of their Lord and master whom they recently acknowledged in a meeting at the Mt. Hebron church. The meeting was conducted by Pastor Mahan and Rev. Caswell, of Lexington.

At the sale of William Sebastian on last Tuesday morning, the receipts were as follows. Cows brought from $30 to $40, 1 horse brought $180, corn $3.15 per barrel.

Mr. Sebastian sold his farm some time since and will go to Madison county in a short time to live.

Mr. Johnson Speakes sold his entire tobacco crop to the Peoples Warehouse, Danville at 14 cents per pound.

AN ALARM AT NIGHT

That strikes terror to the entire household is the loud hoarse and metallic cough of croup. No mistaking it, and fortunate then the the lucky parents who have Foley's Honey and Tar Compound on hand. H. W. Caselman, Canton, N. Y., says: "It is worth its weight in gold. Our little children are troubled with croup and hoarseness, and all we give them is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I always have a bottle of it in the house. Shugars and Tanner.

Mr. Tom Butt has moved to Crab Orchard.

THREE HOGS LIVE 72 DAYS WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER

Unusual Record Made On Farm Of Jas. W. Williams When Straw Stack Falls on Porks

That a hog can go 72 days without food or drink, seems impossible, but that's what three did on the farm of James W. Williams, one of the best known farmers in the county. Sid Myers, who kept track of the hogs, or rather noted the day of their disappearance, also vouches for the story.

It seems that Mr. Williams had three young meat hogs in a field in which there was a large straw stack. One morning, after a heavy wind the night before, the porks showed up missing. They could be found nowhere, nor could any trace of them be located. It seems that the heavy wind of the night before had blow a large portion of the straw stack over them as they lay sleeping under its lee, while the storm raged. In this way, they were imprisoned in such a manner that they could not escape.

In this way the three pigs spent exactly 72 days. When finally discovered and released, they did not much resemble hogs. They were so thin and weak they could hardly stand up. Every hair was worn off their bodies by continual rubbing against the straw, and their flesh is said to have been almost as red as blood. In their efforts to sustain life by securing such nourishment as they could, they had eaten a space about seven feet in diameter in the center of the straw stack.

It required careful nursing for a number of days to save them, but, strange to say, they pulled thro' all right and were fattened into splendid meat when killing time recently rolled round. They refused to touch water, when first released, and had to be fed on warm milk, and other soft food. Once started to feeding, however, they developed enormous appetites, and within a short time showed no trace of their long fast and confinement.

It's worth a lot to be able to tell 20,000 people two times a week of what you have to sell. That's what the I. J. does for you. Are you wise?

MEMBRANEOUS CROUP FATAL.

Mary Noel Gooch, the bright little five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Gooch, of the Waynesburg section, died at their home after a short illness of membranous croup. The little girl attended services, at church Sunday night, and caught a deep cold which settled in her throat. The fatal disease took quick hold of her, and despite every thing that could be done, she died on Monday. She was buried after short services at the Mt. Olive church Tuesday. The fond parents, have the sympathy of a great many friends and loved ones in this their deepest hour of grief.

J. M. REYNOLDS

Buys Out Undertaking Establishment At Waynesburg.

J. M. Reynolds one of the best known citizens of the Waynesburg section of the county, this week bought out the undertaking establishment of E. C. Jordan at Waynesburg. Mr. Jordan comes to Stanford to take charge of the St. Asaph Hotel. Mr. Reynolds took possession at once, and will immediately install many new fixtures and improve the business in many ways. He has a handsome hearse, and will pay particular attention to calls from a distance.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION.

Received By Campaign Chairman Saufley From State Chairman

Rowan Saufley, who as chairman of the Democratic County Campaign Committee, led the fight in the recent campaign in Lincoln, has received the following letter of appreciation from State Chairman R. H. Vansant:

Ashland, Ky., Nov. 18, 1911
Mr. Rowan Saufley:—
Stanford, Ky.,

Dear Sir:

The Democratic party won such a splendid victory on November 7th and your personal efforts contributed so largely to bring about that result that I want to thank you for your industry and loyalty. A united party made success certain. If we had been divided into factions we would have gone to defeat. The lesson we have learned is a valuable one. We can not all agree on every question. Difference will arise over non-essential things, but on the great principles that keep Democracy alive we think alike.

So long as we face the Republican enemy with closed ranks Kentucky will remain in the Democratic column. Each of us should consecrate himself to work for the promotion of harmony and the cultivation of the spirit of generous, fair dealing with one another. We are entering upon an era of great Democratic triumphs. Kentucky has led the way. Let us continue to be an example in unity of purpose and devotion to party, to our fellow democrats everywhere.

I have found great enjoyment and I have derived many benefits from the friendships formed in this campaign and I here renew to you assurance of my confidence and esteem.

Very sincerely yours
R. H. VANSANT,
Chairman.

The body of James Mays was found floating on a pool of water in Middleboro this week. He had been missing for some time. Two men are under arrest charged with his murder.

SCHOBERTH COMES AFTER VOTES IN THIS SECTION

But Woodford County's Candidate For Speakership Finds Legislators For Shanks.

Hon. Harry A. Schoberth, representative from Woodford county, in the lower house of the legislature, and a candidate for the Speakership, was in Stanford a few hours this week with friends. He stopped off here en route from Lancaster to Danville. He saw Representative-elect John Farra at the former place and was informed that Mr. Farra is for Lincoln's candidate, Will Shanks, till the cows come home, and as Mr. Douglas, of Danville, is also strongly pledged to Shanks, there is little doubt but that Schoberth received similar information in that quarter.

Personally, Mr. Schoberth is a splendid fellow, but he is "in bed" politically speaking, with the present prison commissioners, who, it is understood, are moving heaven and earth to keep the next legislature from putting them out of business by placing the appointment of the prison commissioners in the hands of the governor, where it belongs. Prison Commissioner Eli Brown made a flying visit to Danville one day last week, and had a chat with Will Shanks, of this county, whom he telephoned he would like to talk to. Mr. Shanks, however, in his fight for the Speakership is lining up with no interests and will not deal with Mr. Brown in any way in his race for the Speakership. He and his friends believe that he will win the honor he seeks without making any alliances and they propose to make the fight along that line.

HOME, SWEET HOME

The Tenor of Lincoln County Lady's Letter From Hoodlondom

In writing to have the Interior Journal sent to herself and family at their new home in Salem, Indiana, Mrs. W. R. Adams, says:

"I was formerly a resident of old Lincoln county and to me it is the garden spot of the world. Altho' I find my present home situated in a fine country and in a good neighborhood and have made many new friends, it can not compare with old Lincoln to me, and the happiest moment of my life will be when I can once more take old friends by the hand. The singing of Jennie Lind can not equal the voice of the conductor or brakeman that calls 'All out for Crab Orchard.'"

"This world is a pretty place—a very pretty place, but its greatest claim on my attention is, that running through it, shining and straight is the way back home—back to my town; back to the garden spot."

"Home—the word restores to us our youth, our dreams, our hopes. We are back home where every one calls us by our first name, where every road or lane is a kinetoscope of living memories where every house holds a part of our youth."

"As I cannot at present have the pleasure of being among old friends I must enjoy, the best I can, my new friends and have the next greatest pleasure, of reading of my old friends in the Interior Journal."

We feel very thankful to our friends and neighbors who were so kind and attentive to us through the sickness and death of our darling infant baby; and also feel very thankful to the young men for their kindness shown us at the cemetery. R. E. O'Dear and wife.

MRS. PATSY PERKINS

Is Called to Her Reward After Long Life.

Mrs. Patsy Perkins, the aged mother of Mr. W. E. Perkins, of Crab Orchard, passed away at her home at Eubank, last Saturday, aged 80 years. Mrs. Perkins was one of the oldest women in that section of the county, and leaves many relatives and loved ones to mourn that she is with them no more. She was a faithful member of the Christian church, and was laid to rest in the cemetery at Good Hope Sunday after services by Rev. Toodd. Mrs. Perkins took a great interest in church and other religious work and truly a good woman has gone to her reward since she is no more. She is survived by her son, Mr. Perkins and one daughter, Miss Naumie Perkins, and a sister, and other relatives.

DEEDS OF CHARITY

Former Rowland Boy Is Doing Good Work for the Needy.

Rev. John H. Pence, a former Rowland boy, now pastor of the M. E. church at Minier, Illinois, in connection with his excellent congregation especially the Epworth League has been doing some very commendable work in and around Rowland for two or three years past in way of distributing clothing to the poor of that locality. This year they have extended their charity to parts beyond as far as Brodhead where two large packages of useful articles for children of all sizes and ages have been received. These goods are being given them, with grateful benedictions upon the donors.

In a recent letter to his uncle G. E. Painter at Brodhead, Rev. Pence writes that during the past year the Epworth League of the M. E. church of Minier, Illinois has shipped about eight hundred pounds of clothing to three different places and are now planning to ship at least two more boxes between now and Christmas. He also states that since their last conference the League has contributed in way of food and clothing $375.50; also that at a recent meeting the officers of the league resolved to educate a boy in India. It costs only $20 a year for a boy's schooling, board and tuition in India.

Altho' this speaks well for Rev. Pence and his charge in as much as Lord Jesus, while on earth added his words of commendation and approval to these very acts feeding the hungry and clothing the naked. "In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

"BEST ON EARTH."

This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracy, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "Her case was the worst I have ever seen and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than two bottles effected a complete cure." Shugars and Tanner.

FOR SALE PRIVATELY!

My place I now live on containing 20 acres house with four rooms and out buildings, spring close to house. A bargain if sold in 30 days, 6 miles south of Stanford in Jumbo. E. J. Young, Stanford, Ky., R. F. D. No. 3. 89-2p.

BIG CROWD GOING TO THE INAUGURATION

Lincoln County Will Be Well Represented When Gov. McCreary Takes His Seat Dec. 12

Much interest is being manifested in the proposal that Lincoln county democrats go in a body to the inaugural at Frankfort on Tuesday, December 12th, and the probabilities are that some 30 or 40 will make the trip to see Gov. McCreary inducted into office. A great many people wish to take advantage of the low rates on the railroads to see the new capitol and visit other points of interest, and at the same time see Gov. McCreary inaugurated governor for the second time in his life.

Among those who have notified the Interior Journal that they will go are M. S. Baughman, J. M. Cress, Owsley Newland, Senator R. L. Hubbie, Representative W. H. Shanks, A. L. Rankin, Tom Rankin, T. J. Hill, Jr., S. W. Fife, T. W. Pennington, H. R. Saufley, R. H. Coffey, J. T. Embury, Walter Saunders, J. W. Ireland, S. M. Saufley and others.

It is especially requested that all who contemplate going, whether on the excursion or otherwise, notify the Interior Journal as soon as possible so that enough badges may be provided. The Lincoln county delegation will be requested to march in the inaugural parade and it is desired that all wear badges showing where they are from and proclaiming the glad tidings that Lincoln gave McCreary the largest majority she has ever given any candidate for governor.

INAUGURAL INVITATION

The Inauguration of James B. McCreary, as Governor and Edward J. McDermott, as Lieutenant Governor, will take place at the Capitol, Frankfort, at noon on Tuesday, December 12, 1911.

All Kentuckians, regardless of party affiliation, are most cordially invited to attend the ceremonies incident to the Inauguration. Clubs and other bodies that wish to participate should notify the Executive Committee as soon as possible, in order that they may be assigned positions in the parade.

Citizens Executive Committee of Frankfort. S. French Hoge, Chairman, Elwood Hamilton, Percy Haly, John W. Milam, B. G. Williams.

BOYLE COUNTY LAD

Well Known Here, Is Candidate For Page in Legislature.

Robert Dunn, the young son of Col. and Mrs. Ike M. Dunn, of Danville, is a candidate for a Pageship in the next legislature, and it is understood that he will have strong backing from Representative Francis Douglas, of Boyle. The young man is related in Lincoln, being a nephew of Mesdames M. S. and J. W. Baughman, and it is understood that Representative Will Shanks, of this county, and Representative John Farra, of Garrard, will also champion his cause and do what they can to land him a winner.

The pageships pay $2.50 a day for the sixty days of the session, which makes the place a neat pick-up for the young men who land. And there are about five or six pages elected for each house of the legislature.

President Taft's third annual message, which goes to Congress on next Tuesday, will be devoted to the "trust question." The message contains from 5,000 to 6,000 words, and with the exception of a few references in a general way to other subjects, will deal with the question of industrial combinations alone.
